Q4

To reach our collective potential, we must work together to build up Ottawa. That requires a council in which each member commits to city wide leadership. What is your intended approach to collaboration with council, city staff and economic partners?

This is something I have been vocal about since launching my campaign. We need a more collaborative approach to local government, especially when it comes to local commerce and development. As councillor, I will be an ambassador, not only for ward 12, but an approachable, committed ally for uniting our city in a way that promotes progress and growth.

Q5

What key characteristics and skills do you possess that make you a great leader and ambassador for the city of Ottawa, and the national capital region?

I have a track record of working with diverse groups to ensure that projects and goals are achieved to their fullest potential. One of my greatest strengths is working together with colleagues in a way that extracts maximum output and efficiency by identifying and utilizing individual skills, gifts and talents.

Q6

What are your top three priorities for Ottawa's future?

1. Creating more quality, affordable housing.
  2. Addressing our growing city debt and discovering efficiencies within our budget to ensure that our taxpayers are respected.
  3. Improving conditions for economic growth and development in Ward 12 and throughout our city.
